Co-Honorary Referee

Michelle Carter.

2016 Olympic Gold Medalist and current American record holder in the event with a distance of 20.63 m (67 ft 8 in) set at the 2016 Olympic Games.

Michelle won the 2016 gold medal at the Rio Olympics on the last of her six throws, edging two-time defending champion Valerie Adams of New Zealand. In doing so, Carter became the first United States women's athlete to win the event since the women's competition began at the 1948 Summer Olympic Games in London, England, and only the second American to win any medal (Earlene Brown, bronze medal, 1960).

She won the silver medal at the 2001 World Youth Championships and the gold medal at the 2004 World Junior Championships. She finished fifteenth at the 2008 Olympic Games and fifth at the 2012 Olympic Games.

In addition to winning the 2008 United States Olympic Team Trials, she was the 2009, 2011, 2013, 2014, 2015 and 2016 National Champion. While competing for the University of Texas, she won the Collegiate National Championship in 2006.

Michelle is a graduate of Red Oak High School. Her father, Michael Carter, is also a former Olympian and NFL star — the only athlete to win an Olympic medal and a Super Bowl ring in the same year. Both Michelle and her father hold the current National High School Record in the shot put, the only such father-and-daughter situation. Michelle set her record in 2003 while winning the Texas state championship; her father's record has been unchallenged since 1979.

Coach Mark Brady.

Coach Mark Brady has taught science and physical education, while coaching football and track at DeSoto, Mansfield, Fort Worth Country Day and Arlington Oakridge High School.

Mark is known for training skills and developing speed for track athletes. He has overseen record-breaking relays at each of his three prior schools including the 2010 National Champion 4x200m relay team. Mark's track teams have earned one state championship and one state runner-up.

Mark has been married to his wife Robbie for 36 years, and they have two grown children - Cory, and Kelly.
